Virtual Career Fair
Sponsors

"Great event! It allowed us to connect with people from all over the country, with little effort. We invited two candidates back for later round interviews."

— AGILENT

"I was very impressed with the concept and the technology."

— NOVO NORDISK

Praise from some of our 220 registered MBA women

"I like the ability to speak with companies that may not be geographically close enough to interact with in person."

— Trisha Young,
UCLA ANDERSON

"I was very impressed with the virtual tours and the noise in the background. It made it feel like the real world."

— Eunice Lea, DUKE-FUQUA

"The search engine is easy to use and the job descriptions were clear."

— Amber Wang, WASHINGTON
UNIVERSITY-OLIN

Recruiters from national companies and government agencies will be at the virtual career fair to meet and to interview top women MBAs, women just like you! There is no cost for you to attend, and no software to download. You'll be able to video chat with the employers, view company videos and chat with other attendees—all from your computer.

Pre-registration is required, because many companies will be setting up appointments for interviews during the career fair. All that is required is for you to submit your resume. Space will be limited, so be sure to register soon – it's free!
