WOMEN BUSINESS LEADERS CONFERENCE

London, England

24 October 2025

WHAT'S NEXT: DESIGNING YOUR CAREER

London's premier Women's Leadership Event connected professionals across industries through keynotes, workshops, and networking that delivered actionable tools for career advancement and reinvention. Attendees built meaningful connections with leaders and peers while gaining clarity on their next steps. Sponsors elevated their employer brands and demonstrated their commitment to inclusive leadership by engaging directly with high-potential women professionals.

“We need more events like this to tribalize ladies into stronger business communities that can power a new generation of female business leaders.”

WHAT ATTENDEES ARE saying

I have never had an audience of mid-career women who were so engaged. It was wonderful to hear their stories, ambitions and engagement in the topic. It was definitely top of mind for so many." - Hines Europe

It was a gathering that reminded me just how powerful it is when women come together to share, reflect, and lead, and speak the truth such as: "when the learning stops, it is time to move on", "never forget to focus on your visibility", and "you are your own best advocate". Learning from others involves building your network, and I am delighted to have connected with peers. Thank you to everybody at Forté Foundation for the incredible impact, connections, and momentum you are all fueling." - Antoinette-Rita Okiye, Imperial College Business School
